Raising Cancer Awareness in the Business Community

We're taking our cancer awareness message on the road.

The State Chamber's new lecture series delivers key information and available resources to employers about how cancer treatment and prevention issues can impact the workplace.

September 18, 2007, 11:30 a.m.– 2:00 p.m.

Guest Speaker: Dr. Susan Love, breast cancer advocacy pioneer

Ruddertowne

113 Dickinson Street on the Bay, Dewey Beach

October 31, 2007, 11:30 a.m.– 2:00 p.m.

Guest Speaker: Hamilton Jordan, former Chief of Staff to Pres. Jimmy Carter

Sheraton Dover Hotel

1570 N. DuPont Highway, Dover

Each Advocates of Hope session has been approved for 1.75 recertification general credit hours toward PHR, SPHR and GPHR recertification through the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI).

Each event will also include a panel discussion on risk reduction and survivorship moderated by Patricia Hoge of the American Cancer Society. Registration for each event: $40 for Chamber members; $50 for nonmembers. For more information, call (302) 655-7221.

The 2007 Advocates of Hope Lecture Series is dedicated to the memory of Brad Hublein of Wilmington Trust, who passed away in 2007 after a three-year battle with leukemia.
